1. Introduction

Patriotism is the core of the spirit of the Chinese nation. Whenever the Chinese nation encounters difficulties, it always supports us, inspires us, makes us fearless, and pushes us forward. Looking at history, countless people with lofty ideals have not hesitated to shed their heads and shed blood to defend the sovereignty and dignity of the country. Looking at the present, especially since the outbreak of the new crown epidemic, the party and the people have always promoted the spirit of patriotism, determined to fight the virus and attempt to harm our country's interests. Fighting behaviors together constitute a "lifeline" and "protective wall" to fight the epidemic.

The spirit of patriotism is present all the time and is needed all the time. As a contemporary college student, vigorously promoting the spirit of patriotism can help us establish the correct three views, and stimulate our patriotic enthusiasm, spur and encourage us to keep moving forward and work hard for the bright future of the motherland; For the national society, the spirit of patriotism is a nation's endless spiritual force, conducive to the completion of the great cause of people's happiness, national prosperity and national rejuvenation, and the early realization of the Chinese dream of the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation. [1]

2. Background

2.1 In the context of globalization

With the rapid development of the times, economic integration and political multi-polarization have further deepened, and countries in the world have become increasingly close in economic, political, and cultural ties. On the world stage, China, the world's largest developing country, occupies an extremely important position and adheres to the concept of a responsible great power. China has always shouldered a high sense of responsibility, put forward the concept of "One Belt One Road", supported the concept of a community with a shared future, and gradually strengthened its international influence. In such a country, as young people in the new era, we college students must be firm in patriotism, maintain patriotic enthusiasm, and actively promote the spirit of patriotism, so as to inject young strength into my country's building into a powerful socialist country with Chinese characteristics.

For more than 40 years of reform and opening up, under the leadership of the Communist Party of China, China has adhered to the path of socialism with Chinese characteristics, persisted in reform and opening up, and actively communicated with the outside world, and made great progress.

However, with the in-depth exchanges of ideology, culture, economy and politics at home and abroad, some negative capitalist thoughts have also been introduced into China, posing a challenge to patriotism. [2] As the younger generation, college students are more likely to accept new things and new ideas. Therefore, it is particularly important to promote patriotism and patriotism among college student groups.

In the context of globalization, science and technology have developed unprecedentedly and rapidly. Internet technology has developed rapidly under such conditions. The emergence of high-end technologies such as 5G technology has made students' learning no longer confined to the classroom. The universal mastery and application of computers, etc., facilitate the new education model. Under such technical conditions, a variety of methods such as live broadcasting, online classrooms, and online Q&A have emerged, which has brought great convenience to the promotion of patriotism, and the innovative publicity methods and methods of promoting patriotism have been the best. With basic technical support, college students can receive patriotic education through various channels.

2.2 Under the background of patriotic education

In his speech at the commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the May Fourth Movement, General Secretary Xi Jinping expounded the important value and practical path of carrying forward the spirit of patriotism in the new era. [3] In the 18th National Congress of the Communist Party of China, patriotism was discussed. As the core content of the Chinese nation's spirit, patriotism is the spiritual pillar of the Chinese nation and an important link to maintain the unity and national unity of the motherland. What a Chinese must have. College students are young people in the new era. They must learn from the sense of responsibility and mission of young people a hundred years ago, firmly safeguard national interests, and contribute to national development, without being affected by various thought waves. Downplay patriotism, lay a solid ideological foundation for patriotic dedication, and undertake the major task of building the country to make the people happy and the "Chinese Dream" of the great national rejuvenation to succeed. [4]

2.3 Under the new era background

In the report of the 19th National Congress of the Communist Party of China, President Xi Jinping put forward the "Xi Jinping Thought on Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era", reflecting that my country is in an important period of social transformation and transformation. [5] Young college students receiving fresh ideas, culture and higher education will naturally stand in the forefront of social change. Therefore, for college students, promoting patriotism can help them to promote social transformation under the leadership of the correct ideological direction. , Improve the socialist system with Chinese characteristics, and better build China.

2020 is an extremely extraordinary year for China. The outbreak of the new crown epidemic will have a devastating impact on both China and the world. During the outbreak of the epidemic, the Chinese government took a series of effective measures such as closing the city and building a shelter hospital, and used national forces to organize rescue efforts. The new crown epidemic has been effectively controlled in China, and China has protected it at all costs. People's lives are safe, and we have done our best to serve people. The national pride of the Chinese people spontaneously arises, and the superiority of China's political system has also been greatly embodied. In this context, the promotion of patriotism has a superior ideological foundation, and it is easier to stimulate the patriotic thoughts of college students.

Under the guidance of the one country, two systems policy, Hong Kong and Macao returned to the motherland. However, in recent years, under the influence of Hong Kong's internal and external forces, the peaceful social environment has been destroyed, which has seriously affected one country, two systems. The state attaches great importance to it and has established the National Security Law to correctly handle the issues involved. For the Hong Kong issue, we will severely punish Hong Kong independence elements and safeguard national unity. As young people in the new era, college students must support the leadership of the Party Central Committee, resolutely safeguard the unity of the motherland and the nation, and promote the spirit of patriotism. Adhere to the correct ideological direction, consciously abandon thoughts and behaviors that divide the motherland and are not conducive to national unity, and cultivate the backbone of the "Chinese Dream" of achieving the happiness of the people and the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation.

3. Meaning

3.1 Under the background of the new era

3.1.1 Patriotism is always the main theme

Patriotism enables the Chinese Communist Party to steadily follow the socialist line with Chinese characteristics, and makes the Chinese realize the extraordinary of the Chinese nation and the Chinese dream. The essence of patriotism is to love the party and socialism. The Communist Party of China uses Marxist concepts to analyze and solve new situations and problems that have emerged in the process of advancing the modernization of socialism, formulating guidelines and policies in line with China's national conditions, and constantly specifying the purpose of promoting the modernization of socialism. The Communist Party of China maintains the people's democratic dictatorship, creates a harmonious and stable social and political situation, realizes harmonious cooperation between the people, opens a route for socialist modernization, provides a good social environment and political situation, and relies entirely on the wisdom of the people to share the destiny with the people, and actively organize and mobilize The enthusiasm of the people of the whole country adjusts the country; strives to overcome difficulties, sum up experience and lessons, and approach the socialist modernization index.

3.1.2 Better practice socialist core values

Patriotism is the center of the national spirit, a powerful and unique force that supports the Chinese nation. The national spirit is the soul force that gathers strength and inspires people. It is the light that guides us forward. The national spirit is to improve the overall quality of the country and continuously improve the country's international competition. Necessary conditions for power. [6] The core values of socialism are an important foundation for the prosperity of the country, protecting our fundamental interests and helping to form a new socialist trend of mutual assistance.

3.1.3 Promote the development of social productivity

The 70th anniversary of the founding of New China has proved that we need to deepen reforms. At present, China's development is facing serious problems such as unbalanced, uncoordinated development, unreasonable industrial structure, and unreasonable scientific and technological capabilities. Reform and opening up are needed to promote development. Continue to complete the "five-in-one" construction goal and achieve the overall goal of building social wealth and comprehensively deepening reform. It reflects the most unique characteristics of the modern Chinese era and is conducive to promoting the reform and opening up of China's great national pioneering cause. [7]

3.2 Under the background of economic globalization

3.2.1 The Challenge of Patriotism

China's own lack of competitiveness and inadequate economic supervision system have led to slower development, economic integration threatens China's economic security, and national sovereignty has also been weakened. With the continuous development of Internet technology, the increasing exchanges with the world will help China integrate into the international environment and explore development conditions; but with cultural penetration, we should resolutely resist foreign corruption culture.

3.2.2 It is difficult to achieve the unity of world politics and culture, it is necessary to actively encourage patriotism

Countries are at different stages of development, accompanied by different political systems, and it is difficult to unify political issues in the context of globalization. Culture is a unique national symbol of national development, and it also has national characteristics, which is difficult to unify.

3.2.3 Conducive to handling relations between countries

Due to economic globalization, relations between countries have become closer, and exchanges between countries have also increased. Patriotism requires us to love our country while respecting other countries and not deliberately destroying the culture of other countries. Actively receive advanced culture, live in peace with other countries, and pursue common development.

3.3 In the context of patriotic education

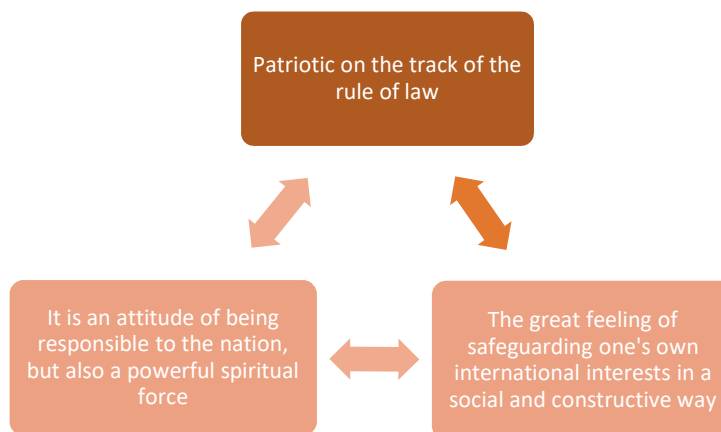

Fig.1 The connotation of patriotism

3.3.1 Patriotism has a strong appeal

Patriotism is accumulated through thousands of years. It is the great national spirit that has been continuously condensed by China, and it is proven by history. This spirit is a unique symbol of the Chinese nation. Over the years, under the banner of patriotism, I have seen the development of the Chinese Communist Party, from division to unity, and the development of the country. [8] As long as patriotism is improved, all ethnic groups can be united. Maintain the unity of the country, promote the harmonious development of society, and realize the dream of the Chinese nation's recuperation.

3.3.2 Patriotism is the belief and noble emotions of human life

The three viewpoints refer to worldview, life viewpoint and value. Human life is a process of continuous improvement. The correct three points of view require good slogans. A guide is patriotism that allows people to have a sense of identity and mission to the motherland. Our continuous contribution to the motherland is a sincere choice. We are willing to contribute to the modernization of socialism and the construction of patriotism throughout our lives. It takes root in people's hearts and becomes a force that inspires us to move forward.

3.3.3 Patriotism education has proved to be carried out in depth through publicity by the government, society and schools

Patriotism education provides compensation to advanced individuals and troops through relevant competition mechanisms. This practice has become a new trend and has achieved clear results. By participating in these competitions, we can continue to be subtly affected and continue to strengthen our belief in patriotism. Patriotism leads social development and is a huge force, and social development is not only economic development, but also political and cultural prosperity.

In short, in the current social environment, it is necessary to promote patriotism, and its significance is also remarkable. It has a profound impact on the development of the country, society, and individuals.

4. Summary

The spirit of patriotism has always attracted attention, and different requirements have been put forward to people in different times. For contemporary college students, it will inspire our love for our country and nation, cultivate our homeland feelings and the spirit of forging ahead. Therefore, the cultivation of patriotism must be paid attention to in the ideological education of the majority of students. The spirit of patriotism should be firmly rooted in the hearts of young people, let them cultivate patriotism, commit themselves to the practice of strengthening the country and serving the country, and continue to carry forward the spirit of patriotism.

In this critical period of social transformation, our party is leading the Chinese people to firmly follow the path of socialism with Chinese characteristics, and realizing the Chinese dream of the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation still needs to promote the spirit of patriotism. Strengthen the education of students' patriotism and guide them to know, patriot, and serve the country. Through studying patriotism knowledge and related theories, we must have a deep understanding of the relevant policies of the Party Central Committee, pay attention to current affairs, and then strengthen patriotism beliefs and encourage students. Contribute to the construction of a new socialist countryside and the realization of the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation. Patriotism requires foresight and wisdom. We must not only study hard to learn theoretical knowledge, but also put it into practice and express our patriotism rationally.

As college students in the new era, society has entrusted us with a heavy responsibility, requiring students to study harder, work harder, work harder, and integrate their personal ideals into national construction. Therefore, at the forefront of the times, we must conform to the development trend of the times, adapt to the objective requirements of the development of the times, correctly understand the history and reality of the motherland with an objective attitude, cultivate the feelings of the family and the sense of responsibility and mission to the motherland, and establish national self-esteem and confidence Heart; Carry forward the great Chinese national spirit, hold high the banner of patriotism, forge ahead, work hard, and truly become a new socialist youth with responsibility, responsibility and accomplishment.
